

89 Pisa Liqueur (Italy; Vision Wine & Spirits, Secaucus, NJ). The marzipan aroma is huge, wafting off the glass when it is still an arm's length away. The big, sticky-sweet almond and hazelnut flavor is overwhelming at first, but pulls back quickly, leaving just a delicate whisper of nuts and orange on the finish. Beyond the glass, this would be a great addition to baked goods or spooned over fruit or ice cream.
