By Susannah Skiver Barton

This week, check out two vintage scotches from Glenmorangie and Benromach, and the latest Master's Keep bourbon from Wild Turkey.

Benromach 1974 Single Cask

Style: Single malt scotch
Proof: 49.1% ABV
Price: $1,700
Release: February 2017
Availability: 40 bottles for the U.S.

Need to know: The whisky spent 41 years in a sherry butt and predates Benromach's closing in 1983 and subsequent reopening in 1998. Each bottle comes with a book about the distillery's history.

Whisky Advocate says: A 1974 Benromach single cask released last year scored a 92 in our Buying Guide. Expect this whisky to have notes of apples, raisins, honey, fudge, chocolate, ginger, and black pepper.
