

PISA NUT LIQUEUR: The Leaning Spirit of Italy

Why we like Pisa: The tongue-in-cheek leaning bottle of Pisa Nut Liqueur, clearly inspired by the namesake architectural landmark in the heart of Tuscany, appeals to the visual senses, but once this nutty quaff hits your palate, you know it's no joke. Bursting with the flavors of hazelnuts, almonds and pistachios, Pisa provides a nicely-complex profile highlighting woody, nutty deliciousness.

Fall in love with: The flavors of Italy come alive in the glass when enjoyed as an aperitif or digestif, but don't shy away from mixing this bad boy into any Italian-themed cocktail for a touch of international flair.
