The original Timorous Beastie, immortalized in Robert Burns' famous Scots poem "To a Mouse" was a timid, little field mouse. Echoing our national bard's wit, Timorous Beastie 18 captures the essence of The Highlands as a marriage of the region's finest malts. It is, of course, proudly without coloring or chill-filtration and bottled at 46.8% alcohol, resulting in an oily, chewy spirit that brings an incredible mouth-feel. Timorous Beastie 18 brings milk chocolate, dried cigar box, and fresh strawberries to the classic Timorous Beastie profile.

Matured in ex-bourbon and ex-sherry casks, this composed and harmonic Highlander showcases malts from such distilleries as Blair Athol, Dalmore, Glen Garioch, and Glengoyne. Timorous Beastie is a grain-driven testament to the affable style of the Scottish Highlands. A blended malt for those seeking something classy, well-integrated, rich and luxurious.
